TESTIMONIALS

London Evening Standard

ONE CANADA SQUARE

'At the heart of buzzing Canary Wharf, an Art Deco-inspired venue exists offering an alternative London wedding location. It contains two sweeping staircases, floor to ceiling windows.... The venue also has a licence until 2am, so you and your guests can dance the night away.'

Harper's BAZAAR

HAT AND TUN

'If the exceptional wood-panelled interior and Tom Dixon pendant lamps catch your eye as you enter the Hat & Tun, the reassuring Londoncentric menu will win your heart.'

GLAMOUR

CHISWELL STREET DINING ROOMS

'In the heart of London's bustling financial district finding a post work eatery for fine dining and a good atmosphere can, rather remarkably, prove to be a bit of a tall order. Chiswell Street Dinging Rooms manages to fuse white table-cloth traditionalism with a killer menu and fun crowd.'

TATLER

AVIARY

'The London skyline at night can make even the hardest among us go weak at the knees, and the view from the top of Aviary is one of the best we've ever seen: the Shard, the Walkie Talkie and the Gherkin are all (almost) close enough to touch.'

Emerald STREET

EALING PARK TAVERN

'Whether taxidermy is your thing or not, the decor really sets the tone for the gourmet banquet that follows.'

Harper's BAZAAR

AVIARY

'As its name might suggest, Aviary aims to be a paradise-like setting in the heart of the city... It's akin to sitting in an alfresco version of a Mad Men penthouse. The vista? A panoramic view of London's architecturally impressive skyscrapers.'
